Dear Jim:

Thanks for your highly uncomplimentary remarks in a recent letter. It is wonderful to know that one clabber head in the audience appreciated some of my remarks.

The September, 1966, EMPHASIS CHRIST meeting sounds like a great idea. As to a list of things that you need to arrange for, I have no way of knowing what to suggest. Will there be other congregations involved? Will a personal work, door-to-door campaign precede the meeting? What facilities can be used that are within the proportions of a "rational" expectation of crowds? A dynamic master of ceremonies should be secured, and an outstanding song leader should be chosen. By the way, I don't see how you can fill both roles!

Keep the good work up and let me know if there are other things that I can help you with. If you happen to have $10,000 to spend on this campaign, Fidelity Enterprises will be glad to handle the whole mess.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
